Join us at the August 27 Cancer Connections virtual meeting featuring Dr. Stephanie Staras who will provide an overview on the cancers related to human papillomavirus (HPV), the efficacy of the HPV vaccine, and the low HPV vaccine coverage rates. She will discuss how parents and health care providers are essential to increasing HPV vaccination rates. The talk will conclude with interventions that are being tested by Dr. Staras and her team to increase HPV vaccination rates in Florida.

For more information about Cancer Connections, please email Jodian Blake at blake.j@ufl.edu